

New Account Manager Parthen Meeting Services

Carla Prevoo has joined Parthen Meeting Services as the new Account Manager for Parthen R&S.

She will further develop the business for Parthen R&S, increase visibility and maintain client relations for existing customers.

Carla has extensive experience in scientific conferences, gained with Congrex Holland and later on ATPi. She has worked at- and managed the conference bureau at the European Space Agency for over 10 years, and knows exactly the challenges faced when organising a conference. Parthen R&S provides registration services and abstract handling, including financial administration, making it possible for clients to focus on the details of the logistics.
